Abkarry Notification.

Notice is hereby given, that under the provisions of Act XXI. of 1856, and in modification of the Rules hitherto in force, the following Rules have been prescribed, with the sanction of Government, to take effect from this date, in regard to all distilleries constructed and worked according to the English method in the territories under the Government of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal:—

1st. Application for license must be made to the Collector of the District in which the distillery is situated, or, in case the distillery is within 20 miles of Calcutta, to the Collector of Calcutta.

2nd. Parties licensed to work distilleries shall deposit five thousand Rupees in cash or in Government Securities with the Collector; the whole of the amount, or such portion of it as the Government shall determine on the recommendation of the Board of Revenue, together with the distillery license, to be forfeited in the event of any breach of the Abkarry laws of the Bengal Presidency proved before the Officer vested by law with the decision of Abkarry suits. On the license ceasing without forfeiture, the sum deposited shall be returned by the Collector.

3rd. Not more than one cautionary deposit of five thousand Rupees in cash or Government Securities will be required on account of any number of distilleries that may be established by one and the same individual or firm.

4th. No distillery shall be licensed until the parties applying for license shall have satisfied the Collector that the distillery buildings and premises are so constructed and surrounded by a wall as to afford full security for the Government Revenue, and that the works are capable of producing not less than three hundred gallons of spirits per diem.

5th. Collectors are empowered to refuse licenses for distilleries without assigning any reason, except to the superior Revenue Authorities in the event of an appeal from their decision.

6th. Parties working licensed distilleries are required to apply to the Collector in December each year for the renewal of their licenses for the year following; and unrenewed licenses shall be considered null and void, and as not protecting the spirits produced in the distilleries from seizure and confiscation, or the parties working the distilleries from the penalties provided by law for the illicit manufacture of spirits.

7th. Parties licensed to work a distillery shall provide a suitable residence for the Abkarry Officer stationed on the premises, which residence shall be so situated as to command the ingress and egress to and from the premises.

8th. The Collector or Deputy Collector, and the Surveyor or other subordinate Officer appointed by him to the duty, shall at all times, by day and by night, have free ingress into every licensed distillery, and into the godowns and other places appertaining thereto, for the purpose of making such experiments as may be necessary for estimating the amount of the duties, of inspecting and measuring all stills and other vessels used in manufacturing spirits, and gauging and proving spirits manufactured in the distillery.

9th. Parties licensed to work a distillery shall, within five days after receiving the license, furnish to the Collector a correct statement of the distillery premises, specifying every ware-house, godown and other place appertaining thereto to be used for carrying on the business of the distillery, and all stills, coppers, casks and other vessels to be so used. All such vessels shall be duly inspected, measured, and marked by the Abkaree Officer stationed at the distillery, or any other Officer appointed to the duty by the Collector, and no vessels shall be used in the distillery which are not so marked, and a statement of which has not been furnished to the Collector.

10th. Every wash still shall contain at least two hundred gallons, and every still for distilling low wines shall contain at least one hundred gallons.

11th. Parties licensed to work a distillery shall, five days before beginning to bring in materials for manufacturing spirits, give notice to the Collector of the day on which it is intended to commence distilling.

12th. Parties working licensed distilleries shall, five days before discontinuing distillation, give notice to the Collector of the day on which it is intended to discontinue working the stills. On the day appointed the still shall be sealed up by the Abkaree Officer stationed at the distillery, or any other Officer appointed to the duty by the Collector, and they shall remain sealed up until distillation is recommenced.

13th. It shall be the duty of the Abkaree Officer stationed at a licensed distillery to gauge and prove all spirits manufactured in the distillery, and to keep a regular account of all spirits conveyed from the distillery under pass or kept in the godowns, ware-houses, and other places where such spirits are usually deposited, exhibiting their quantity and strength.

14th. No spirits shall be conveyed from the godowns, ware-houses or other places used for keeping the produce of a licensed distillery, or from the distillery, except to such godowns, ware-houses and other places, without a pass issued by the Collector.

15th. No spirits shall be conveyed from a licensed distillery, unless the following marks are legibly pointed or cut on each end of the cask containing the spirits, viz., the name of the distillery and known mark of the proprietor, the

* The strength of the spirits to be ascertained by ykes's Hydrometer, the instrument used by the Excise in England. quantity of spirits contained in the cask, and the strength of the spirits, which shall not be below London proof. For instance, the marks on a cask of Dhobah Rum will stand thus:—

* Meaning 5 degrees over London proof.

16th. Spirits intended for consumption in Calcutta may be removed from licensed distilleries, without the previous payment of duty, under charge of Abkarry Officers, for the purpose of being stored in the Abkarry godown at the Calcutta Custom House. The Collector of Calcutta will recover the duty on spirits so removed and stored when passed out from the Custom House for local consumption. Rent will be charged at the rate of 6 pies per day for every cask of spirits allowed to remain in the godown for more than eight days.

17th. Spirits removed and stored, as provided in the preceding clause, will be permitted to pass out of the Custom House for exportation by Sea, on the proprietor depositing with the Collector of Calcutta, either in cash or Government Securities of sufficient value, the amount of duty on the spirits at the rate of one Rupee per imperial gallon imposed by Section VII. Act XXI. of 1856, and entering into an engagement to pay the duty in the event of the spirits not being exported. On proof of exportation, the Collector will cancel the engagement bond, and return the deposit.

18th. Parties working licensed distilleries will be allowed to remove spirits there manufactured, for exportation by Sea, without the previous payment of duty, after executing a bond to the Honorable East India Company, binding them to pay the duty of one rupee the imperial gallon for any portion of the spirits so bonded, which may not be exported by Sea as merchandize within four months from the date of the bond.

19th. A member of some established house of business at the port of exportation to be one of the parties bound, and the parties bound to be jointly and severally answerable for any amount which may ultimately fall due under the bond.

20th. The Collector may refuse the security tendered without assigning any reason, except to the superior Revenue authorities in the event of an appeal from his decision.

21st. The distillery and apparatus will be considered as pledged for any amount which may become due under the bond.

22nd. Bonds will not be received for a less quantity of spirits than one thousand imperial gallons, and no quantity less than one thousand gallons will be allowed to be removed from a distillery under bond.

23rd. On a bond being duly executed the Collector shall immediately forward a true copy of the same to the Collector of Customs at the port of exportation, and shall grant a pass for the spirits bonded without payment of the duty.

24th. On the spirits being brought to the Custom House for exportation, the exporters shall declare in writing by what bond it is protected, and shall produce the pass of the Collector of Land Revenue and the distillery invoice. The spirits shall then be gauged for quantity, and proved to ascertain the strength by a Custom House Officer. If the quantity so ascertained be the same as that marked in the casks, (the casks being the same which were removed from the distillery) the spirits shall be allowed to pass for Sea Export, and the quantity shall be written off on the copy of the bond furnished to the Collector of Customs. If the quantity be not the same as that marked on the casks, duty shall be levied on the difference as provided by Section II Act XXI of 1856.

25th. When the entire bonded quantity is written off upon the copy of the bond, the Collector of Customs shall return the said copy of the bond to the Collector of Land Revenue from whom he received it, who shall, on receipt of the copy, cancel the original bond.

26th. It shall be the province of the exporters to see that the exports made from time to time under a bond are properly written off or certified on the copy of the bond which is in the possession of the Collector of Customs, and they shall testify that the exports are correctly so written off by their signatures to the entries.

27th. If at the expiration of four months from the date of a bond the entire quantity of spirits covered by the bond shall not have been exported and written off, as provided in the preceding clause, the Collector of Land Revenue, on the same being certified to him by the Collector of Customs, shall proceed to recover the duty under condition to be paid upon such quantity of spirits as may not have been exported under the bond, unless the currency of the bond shall have been renewed.

28th. Time expired bonds may be renewed at the discretion of the Collector of Land Revenue, with the sanction of the Commissioner, for a further period of four months from the date of the expiration of the first currency, and for no period more or less than that term. On the expiration of the second currency the Collector shall proceed to adjust such time-expired bonds, and levy duty on the quantity of spirits unexported or deficient.

29th. A maximum allowance, according to the following scale, will be made on account of ullage and leakage in spirits removed under their bond from distilleries in the Mofussil for exportation by Sea; for a distance not exceeding 100 miles, 5 per centum.

For a distance above 100 miles, but not exceeding 200 miles, 7½ per centum.

For all distances exceeding 200 miles, 10 per centum.

30th. Applications for licences to use Rum duty free in the manufacture of Sugar and Molasses must be made to the Collector of the District in which the Sugar factory for which the license is required is situated, or if within 20 miles of Calcutta, to the Collector of Calcutta.

31st. Parties licensed to use Rum duty free for the above purpose will be permitted to remove Rum under pass from licensed distilleries to their factories, on entering into a bond to pay duty at the rate of one Rupee per gallon on any portion of the Rum bonded which may not be used for the purpose specified, within six months from the date of the bond; and at the expiration of that period the Collector shall proceed to recover the duty on such portion of the Rum, unless the bond shall have been renewed.

32nd. The parties bound must be jointly and severally answerable for any amount which may ultimately fall due under the bond.

33rd. The currency of the bond may be renewed at the discretion of the Collector, with the sanction of the Commissioner, for a further term of six months. At the expiration of the second currency the Collector shall proceed to adjust the time-expired bond and levy the duty on the quantity of Rum deficient or unconsumed.

34th. An Establishment, consisting of a Darogah and two Chaprassées, will be maintained by Government at each Sugar factory, where permission may be given to use Rum duty free, and the

1st. Application for license must be made to the Collector of the District in which the distillery is situated, or, in case the distillery is within 20 miles of Calcutta, to the Collector of Calcutta.

2nd. Parties licensed to work distilleries shall deposit five thousand Rupees in cash or in Government Securities with the Collector, the whole of the amount, or such portion of it as the Government shall determine on the recommendation of the Board of Revenue, together with the distillery license, to be forfeited in the event of any breach of the Abkarry laws of the Bengal Presidency proved before the Officer vested by law with the decision of Abkarry suits. On the license ceasing without forfeiture, the sum deposited shall be returned by the Collector.

3rd. Not more than one cautionary deposit of five thousand Rupees in cash or Government Securities will be required on account of any number of distilleries that may be established by one and the same individual or firm.

5th. Collectors are empowered to refuse licenses for distilleries without assigning any reason, except to the superior Revenue Authorities in the event of an appeal from their decision.

6th. Parties working licensed distilleries are required to apply to the Collector in December each year for the renewal of their licenses for the year following; and unrenewed licenses shall be considered null and void, and as not protecting the spirits produced in the distilleries from seizure and confiscation, or the parties working the distilleries from the penalties provided by law for the illicit manufacture of spirits.

8th. The Collector or Deputy Collector, and the Surveyor or other subordinate Officer appointed by him to the duty, shall at all times, by day and by night, have free ingress into every licensed distillery, and into the godowns and other places appertaining thereto, for the purpose of making such experiments as may be necessary for estimating the amount of the duties, of inspecting and measuring all stills and other vessels used in manufacturing spirits, and gauging and proving spirits manufactured in the distillery.

Spirits intended for consumption in Calcutta may be removed from licensed distilleries, without the previous payment of duty, under charge of Abkarry Officers, for the purpose of being stored in the Abkarry godown at the Calcutta Custom House. The Collector of Calcutta will recover the duty on spirits so removed and stored when passed out from the Custom House for local consumption. Rent will be charged at the rate of 6 pies per day for every cask of spirits allowed to remain in the godown for more than eight days.

17th. Spirits removed and stored, as provided in the preceding clause, will be permitted to pass out of the Custom House for exportation by Sea, on the proprietor depositing with the Collector of Calcutta, either in cash or Government Securities of sufficient value, the amount of duty on the spirits at the rate of one Rupee per imperial gallon imposed by Section VII. Act XXI. of 1856, and entering into an engagement to pay the duty in the event of the spirits not being exported. On proof of exportation, the Collector will cancel the engagement bond, and return the deposit.

The spirits shall then be gauged for quantity, and proved to ascertain the strength by a Custom House Officer. If the quantity so ascertained be the same as that marked in the casks, (the casks being the same which were removed from the distillery) the spirits shall be allowed to pass for Sea Export, and the quantity shall be written off on the copy of the bond furnished to the Collector of Customs. If the quantity be not the same as that marked on the casks, duty shall be levied on the difference as provided by Section II Act XXI of 1856.

35th. No Extra Establishment will be required if the Sugar factory be attached to a licensed distillery and within the walls of the distillery premises.

36th. The Collector and the Surveyor, or other subordinate Officers appointed by him to the duty, shall have free ingress into the factory for the purpose of inspection of the premises, and over sight of the Excise establishment in the same way as if it were a distillery.

No. 538 of 1857.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased to direct that the following Military Letter, from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to the address of the Government of India, be published in General Orders:—

Military Department.

No. 217 of 1856.

OUR GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.
Reply to Military Letter, dated 17th July 1856.
No. 245.

1. In consequence of the want of an adequate number of Officers of the Company's Army available and qualified for Staff and detached employments, we consented in the year 1853 to relax the Rule Forward for Court's consideration and orders. Correspondence on the subject of allowing to Officers of Her Majesty's Service an increased participation in Staff and other Military appointments in India.

under which the employment of Her Majesty's Officers serving in India was limited in time of peace to General Commands; Divisional Commands; Brigade Commands; Staff of Her Majesty's Forces in India; and Regimental Duties.

2. The several Governments were then permitted, whenever the necessity should arise, to employ duly qualified Officers of Her Majesty's Regiments as Surveyors; Revenue Surveyors; and in the Department of Public Works.

3. It was proposed by the late Commander-in-Chief in India that the Rule should be still further relaxed by admitting qualified Officers of Her Majesty's Regiments to the Departments of the Quarter Master General; Judge Advocate General; Assistant Adjutant General of Divisions; Brigade Majors of Stations; and to appointments in the Irregular Cavalry and Infantry; And the Field Marshal, lately Commanding in Chief, transmitted the proposal to us, and recommended it to favorable consideration.

4. We have now been furnished with the sentiments of the Governor General and the other Members of the Government of India on this important question.

5. The Governor General has remarked as follows:—

"It is, I think, sufficient to say that which I believe can be said with truth, that the opening of Staff employment, under certain restrictions, to Officers of the Queen's Army will place at the service of the Government of India in posts of responsibility not always easily filled men of capacity and energy, whose usefulness beyond the ranks of their Regiments is at present lost to the Government. That it will act as a stimulus to honorable and wholesome rivalry between the two Armies to the great benefit of each; that it will partially relieve the Indian Army of the inordinate drain upon its Officers which, under the requirements of the Staff, joined with other growing necessities, has become a serious impediment to its Regimental efficiency, and that the general result will be to improve and enlarge the machinery of Indian Government."

6. In pursuance of those views His Lordship recommends the admission of Her Majesty's Officers to the Offices and Departments already specified in certain fixed proportions, and also to Corps of Irregular Cavalry and Infantry, in the proportion of one per Regiment, provided they can be so employed without liability to sudden removal.

7. These appointments being intimately connected with Native Troops have hitherto, as a general rule, been strictly limited to Officers of the Company's Army, not for the personal advantage of those Officers, (although their just claims are entitled to the highest consideration) but on account of the obvious necessity of securing the services of Officers well acquainted with the languages, customs and feelings of the Native Troops, and therefore especially qualified for these particular duties. The maintenance of this General Rule we consider to be absolutely necessary, although the exigencies of the public service and the peculiar qualifications of individuals may justify occasional and temporary deviations from it.

8. We do not think it desirable to sanction the employment of fixed proportions of Her Majesty's Officers in the Departments and Corps above-mentioned; but we are prepared, under the emergencies of the Service, to accede to the recommendation so far as to extend the authority given as above-mentioned in the year 1853 to the employment, when the necessity shall arise of Officers of Her Majesty's Army serving with their Regiments in India in the following Offices on the Staff, viz :—

Assistant and Deputy Assistant, Adjutants General of Divisions; Brigade Majors; Assistant and Deputy Assistant, Quarter Master Generals of Divisions; and Deputy Judge Advocates.

9. It will be indispensably necessary that the Officers of Her Majesty's Regiments to be selected for these appointments, when the necessity may arise, shall be possessed of all the qualifications in respect of the knowledge of Native languages which are required in Officers of the Company's Forces, as reported by Committees, and that they shall be familiar with the habits and feelings of the Native Troops; also that no such appointment be made without the previous approbation and authority of the Governor General in Council, or of the Local Governments of Madras and Bombay.

10. The Officers of Her Majesty's Regiments serving in India have such limited opportunities of acquiring the peculiar knowledge requisite to qualify for service with Corps of Irregular Cavalry and Infantry, to which usually only three European Officers are attached, that their admission to that Service could only be justified in special cases, when any of Her Majesty's Officers, after a lengthened service in India, had evinced remarkable aptitude for those duties. In such cases we authorise their being so employed subject to our confirmation, the special grounds in each case being immediately reported to us. In fact when an Officer of Her Majesty's Service exhibited these exceptional qualifications at a former period, your Government did not fail, notwithstanding the existence of the General Rule, to avail itself of his services in an Irregular Corps, as manifested in the instance of Lieutenant Colonel Fisher, formerly of Her Majesty's 3rd Dragoons. Fitness equally signal can alone justify the employment of other than our own Officers in times to come.

11. By the Rules of the Company's Service the term of qualification for Staff employment is three years' Regimental duty. We consider that the same term of service, and in India, should be required to render Her Majesty's Officers eligible for Staff employment in the Company's Service.

12. Officers so appointed to the Staff are not to hold Office for a period exceeding five years, unless re-appointed; and they will cease to hold Staff appointments if placed upon half or unattached pay, or if their Regiments are removed from the Establishment in India, or if, on promotion, Officers of the Company's Service similarly circumstanced would be required to vacate the appointments. As a matter of course no Officer is to be appointed to the General Staff of a Presidency other than that to which his Regiment is attached.

13. It is understood that the establishment of the Queen's Regiments in India will not be augmented in consequence of this arrangement.

We are, &c,

(Signed) W. H. SYKES,
and nine other Directors.

Abkarry Notification.

Notice is hereby given, that under the provisions of Act XXI. of 1856, and in modification of the Rules hitherto in force, the following Rules have been prescribed, with the sanction of Government, to take effect from this date, in regard to all distilleries constructed and worked according to the English method in the territories under the Government of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal:—

1st. Application for license must be made to the Collector of the District in which the distillery is situated, or, in case the distillery is within 20 miles of Calcutta, to the Collector of Calcutta.

2nd. Parties licensed to work distilleries shall deposit five thousand Rupees in cash or in Government Securities with the Collector, the whole of the amount, or such portion of it as the Government shall determine on the recommendation of the Board of Revenue, together with the distillery license, to be forfeited in the event of any breach of the Abkarry laws of the Bengal Presidency proved before the Officer vested by law with the decision of Abkarry suits. On the license ceasing without forfeiture, the sum deposited shall be returned by the Collector.

3rd. Not more than one cautionary deposit of five thousand Rupees in cash or Government Securities will be required on account of any number of distilleries that may be established by one and the same individual or firm.

4th. No distillery shall be licensed until the parties applying for license shall have satisfied the Collector that the distillery buildings and premises are so constructed and surrounded by a wall as to afford full security for the Government Revenue, and that the works are capable of producing not less than three hundred gallons of spirits per diem.

5th. Collectors are empowered to refuse licenses for distilleries without assigning any reason, except to the superior Revenue Authorities in the event of an appeal from their decision.

6th. Parties working licensed distilleries are required to apply to the Collector in December each year for the renewal of their licenses for the year following; and unrenewed licenses shall be considered null and void, and as not protecting the spirits produced in the distilleries from seizure and confiscation, or the parties working the distilleries from the penalties provided by law for the illicit manufacture of spirits.

7th. Parties licensed to work a distillery shall provide a suitable residence for the Abkarry Officers stationed on the premises, which residence shall be so situated as to command the ingress and egress to and from the premises.

8th. The Collector or Deputy Collector, and the Surveyor or other subordinate Officer appointed by him to the duty, shall at all times, by day and by night, have free ingress into every licensed distillery, and into the godowns and other places appertaining thereto, for the purpose of making such experiments as may be necessary for estimating the amount of the duties, of inspecting and measuring all stills and other vessels used in manufacturing spirits, and gauging and proving spirits manufactured in the distillery.

9th. Parties licensed to work a distillery shall, within five days after receiving the license, furnish to the Collector a correct statement of the distillery premises, specifying every ware-house, godown and other place appertaining thereto to be used for carrying on the business of the distillery, and all stills, coppers, casks and other vessels to be so used. All such vessels shall be duly inspected, measured, and marked by the Abkarry Officer stationed at the distillery, or any other Officer appointed to the duty by the Collector, and no vessels shall be used in the distillery which are not so marked, and a statement of which has not been furnished to the Collector.

10th. Every wash still shall contain at least two hundred gallons, and every still for distilling low wines shall contain at least one hundred gallons.

11th. Parties licensed to work a distillery shall, five days before beginning to bring in materials for manufacturing spirits, give notice to the Collector of the day on which it is intended to commence distilling.

12th. Parties working licensed distilleries shall, five days before discontinuing distillation, give notice to the Collector of the day on which it is intended to discontinue working the stills. On the day appointed the still shall be sealed up by the Abkarry Officer stationed at the distillery, or any other Officer appointed to the duty by the Collector, and they shall remain sealed up until distillation is recommenced.

13th. It shall be the duty of the Abkarry Officer stationed at a licensed distillery to gauge and prove all spirits manufactured in the distillery, and to keep a regular account of all spirits conveyed from the distillery under pass or kept in the godowns, ware-houses, and other places where such spirits are usually deposited, exhibiting their quantity and strength.

14th. No spirits shall be conveyed from the godowns, ware-houses or other places used for keeping the produce of a licensed distillery, or from the distillery, except to such godowns, ware-houses and other places, without a pass issued by the Collector.

15th. No spirits shall be conveyed from a licensed distillery, unless the following marks are legibly pointed or cut on each end of the cask containing the spirits, viz., the name of the distillery and known mark of the proprietor, the quantity of spirits contained in the cask, and the strength of the spirits, which shall not be ascertained by Sykes's Hydrometer, the instrument used by the Excise in England.

ge below London proof. For instance, the marks on a cask of Dhobah Rum will stand thus:—

* Meaning 5 degrees over London proof.

16th. Spirits intended for consumption in Calcutta may be removed from licensed distilleries, without the previous payment of duty, under charge of Abkarry Officers, for the purpose of being stored in the Abkarry godown at the Calcutta Custom House. The Collector of Calcutta will recover the duty on spirits so removed and stored when passed out from the Custom House for local consumption. Rent will be charged at the rate of 6 pies per day for every cask of spirits allowed to remain in the godown for more than eight days.

17th. Spirits removed and stored, as provided in the preceding clause, will be permitted to pass out of the Custom House for exportation by Sea, on the proprietor depositing with the Collector of Calcutta, either in cash or Government Securities of sufficient value, the amount of duty on the spirits at the rate of one Rupee per imperial gallon imposed by Section VII. Act XXI. of 1856, and entering into an engagement to pay the duty in the event of the spirits not being exported. On proof of exportation, the Collector will cancel the engagement bond, and return the deposit.

18th. Parties working licensed distilleries will be allowed to remove spirits there manufactured, for exportation by Sea, without the previous payment of duty, after executing a bond to the Honorable East India Company, binding them to pay the duty of one rupee the imperial gallon for any portion of the spirits so bonded, which may not be exported by Sea as merchandize within four months from the date of the bond.

19th. A member of some established house of business at the port of exportation to be one of the parties bound, and the parties bound to be jointly and severally answerable for any amount which may ultimately fall due under the bond.

20th. The Collector may refuse the security tendered without assigning any reason, except to the superior Revenue authorities in the event of an appeal from his decision.

21st. The distillery and apparatus will be considered as pledged for any amount which may become due under the bond.

22nd. Bonds will not be received for a less quantity of spirits than one thousand imperial gallons, and no quantity less than one thousand gallons will be allowed to be removed from a distillery under bond.

23rd. On a bond being duly executed the Collector shall immediately forward a true copy of the same to the Collector of Customs at the port of exportation, and shall grant a pass for the spirits bonded without payment of the duty.

24th. On the spirits being brought to the Custom House for exportation, the exporters shall declare in writing by what bond it is protected, and shall produce the pass of the Collector of Land Revenue and the distillery invoice. The spirits shall then be gauged for quantity, and proved to ascertain the strength by a Custom House Officer. If the quantity so ascertained be the same as that marked in the casks, (the casks being the same which were removed from the distillery) the spirits shall be allowed to pass for Sea Export, and the quantity shall be written off on the copy of the bond furnished to the Collector of Customs. If the quantity be not the same as that marked on the casks, duty shall be levied on the difference as provided by Section II Act XXI of 1856.

25th. When the entire bonded quantity is written off upon the copy of the bond, the Collector of Customs shall return the said copy of the bond to the Collector of Land Revenue from whom he received it, who shall, on receipt of the copy, cancel the original bond.
